ABOUT US

Established in October 2007, Principal Security has quickly become one of Perth's premier and most sought after security firms.

Principal's director, Mr Chris Tsalamangos, is a fully accredited Security Supervisor who has gained his extensive experience in all aspects of premises and personal security over a 14 year period. His personal input into all aspects of the company ensures that our first priority is excellence in our service to you.

We are dedicated to the radical development of the security industry. By providing high standards and following strict legislation, our aim is to continue improving client relationships through ensuring the safety of the public, the management and employees in all the venues and sites which we serve.

Our core competence lies in the fact that we are able to liaise effectively with all of our clients, providing security solutions that are professionally tailored to the precise requirements of the company or individual.

Our services are called upon by major leisure industries and by blue-chip corporate companies who are looking for a complete security solution.

Principal Security is an equal opportunity employer and strives to provide a diverse and capable work force to meet your specific needs. All employees comply with the relevant legislative requirements of their position and are kept abreast of the changing needs and requirements of the security industry.

Principal Security has seriously minded staffs that know their job well and are first class at what they do. Our dress standard is of the highest quality and all staff is enthusiastic in regards to keeping their uniform and appearance tidy and clean cut

Principal Security has over 110 staff available to ensure your unique requirements are met quickly and efficiently within its two distinct areas of security expertise, of perimeter and personal security and crowd control security.

Principal Security supplies a professional team of security personnel throughout Western Australia and other locations nationwide.

We surpass in innovative and cost effective solutions for all aspects of security, including protection for a wide range of leisure and retail outlets.

We also cater for mobile patrols, crowd control, executive protection, construction sites, bars and clubs and a variety of other functions.

Our principle objectives are to form a secure, productive relationship with all our clients, and to maintain each relationship through our professional, hands-on style of management.

We hold regular meetings with management and staff to ensure we continue to provide a high standard of service to all our customers, 24 hours a day.

VIP Protection

The management and all of our officers at Principal Security are well trained in Executive & Celebrity Protection as well as all security functions. All the personnel in this department are trained in the following:

- * Public Relations
- * Executive Protection
- * Self Defense
- * Unarmed Combat
- * High speed driving
- * Observation
- * Firearm, Bombs and Explosives Search procedures and techniques

Absence or loss of certain key positions in any organization, permanently or temporarily, causes a serious disruption to the flow of business and may even, at certain times, result in a company losing competitive advantage. We provide your senior management with guidelines to follow which will enhance their personal safety and we recommend basic procedures, which are designed to dramatically reduce your exposure to this risk.

We provide the highest quality close protection, surveillance and counter measure programs to prominent clients, VIP's, select corporations and organisations throughout Australia. All of our bodyguards are trained to the highest level in a variety of tactical, protective and security related subjects including first aid, protocol and diplomacy.

Close protection operations are often of an extremely sensitive nature. After carrying out a detailed security threat assessment, we will produce a comprehensive and cost effective strategy. This will ensure that each client can carry out their everyday activities hassle free. Our professional and discreet personnel will operate according to the cultural, political and religious environments in which they are required to work.

Our Close Protection Officers are individuals who work as part of a specialist team. It is through effective teamwork and continual training that operational objectives are achieved and clients expectations are fulfilled.

K9 Security

All handlers are licensed officers and trained by the most experienced supervisors in the industry. The pre-requisite is the love of dogs.

Working mainly at night, little movement escapes the keen senses of the dogs who are able to smell hidden criminals or potential vandals and they are more than able to protect your premises as well as their handlers.

CCTV Security

Principal Security is able to quickly and effectively solve all your C.C.T.V. requirements. We have a wide range of options from large, visible all weather camera's to small undetectable surveillance cameras to combat leakage (loss prevention).

Security Consulting

Many firms and organizations have realized that it is timely and worthwhile to periodically perform security risk assessments and security vulnerability assessments of their entire organization or a particular facility, department or process. A security assessment will be performed in an objective, proactive, collaborative, comprehensive and professional manner.

At Principal Security, we will provide an objective assessment of your company's existing security procedures and recommend any needed improvements. We will guide you through the process of solving your security problems by helping organise and gather all the needed information while also utilizing our years of experience in the process.

Principal Security has developed a Twelve Step Strategy for ensuring all our clients requirements will be addressed.

- Advise management on what is current – that is, state of art
- Warn management of potential risks and unnecessary exposures
- Identify problems
- Yield unbiased and honest opinions
- Present new ideas & strategies
- Forecast protection needs for the future
- Clarify & rewrite security policies & procedures
- Build bridges between security and other departments
- Hire qualified security personnel, especially at the executive level
- Train security staff
- Launch new security policies & procedures by conducting orientation meetings
- Provide the highest professional assistance and guidance possible to every client

At Principal Security, we believe every organisation is individual. That is why we tailor an exclusive service for every valued client.

Event Planning & Management

The correct planning is everything when it comes to large events, where patron numbers are in the thousands. So many things need to be taken into account.

Entry points, exit points, adequate numbers of manpower and emergency procedures need to be implemented correctly and efficiently.

Principal Security prides itself on creating the perfect team for every client's requirements.

At Principal Security, we work closely with all the necessary governing authorities and departments to ensure your event goes off without a hitch.

Once your event is planned our Consulting Department works hand in hand with our large Crowd Control division to ensure all aspects of your event are handled with the utmost professionalism and proficiency.

With Principal Security your events will always be a success.

Strata Security Services

Let us protect your investment. Principal Security can provide guards, tactically trained, with baton and handcuff qualifications.

This is an attribute that not many companies can provide. This enables one good guard to look after strata's through the night and into the early hours of the morning.

Our statistics show most people apprehended by our guards have been caught between the hours of midnight and six am, attempting to break into resident's vehicles and abodes and trespassing illegally.

Our theory is if we can provide a service that eliminates the undesirable element and save you money then it becomes a win/win situation.

To have two guards in a strata complex can be financially unfeasible. To have one good guard, with a strong personality that is tactically trained and technically proficient, is more productive for the client.

Principal Security has already eliminated the undesirable element for many strata's within the Perth CBD.

We offer tailored packages to suit your needs and enable your residents to rest easy at night.
